

Daniel Brown

Director - Lloyd's & London Market Clients

Daniel joined MDD Forensic Accountants in 2022 and leads the firm's engagement with Lloyd's and London Market clients from MDD's London office. With more than 20 years of experience in the London insurance market, he brings a wealth of industry insight and strategic relationship expertise.

As a trusted liaison between clients and MDD's global forensic accounting team, Daniel ensures client needs are deeply understood and proactively addressed. He plays a pivotal role in facilitating updates, forging connections, and supporting new engagement across the firm's Core Practice Areas — all with a focus on precision, responsiveness, and collaboration.

His extensive market knowledge and global perspective make him a key partner for clients seeking clarity, confidence, and results in complex claims and loss scenarios.
